FIREMAN SUCCESSFULLY PLAYED HOSE ALONE

A fire alarm turned in from Panna tream on upper Kinan street about welve-thirty yesterday brought out not only the fire department, police patro and nearly all the residents of Punch owl, but the gas man, the electric light nan, the telephone man, insurance men by squads, autos by the dozen and hackcame stringing along for half an hour ifterward, and when the police patrol, which was first on the ground, arrived, hey found a le e fireman on top of a wa story house, playing a garden hose on the shingles, the water being a merdrizzle. But he put the fire out, The police and fire department were urprised to see the lone fireman on the onse. He just happened to be in the neighborhood and at once took com nand of himself and ordered himself up ladder carrying the hose. He was he whole fire department on this occa ion and distinguished himself. Had he blaze, which started in the roof o he kitchen near the stove pipe, gained neadway, the whole building would have been quickly gutted. The house was occupied by a Mrs. Rodrigues and is owned by Javinthe ionsalves.
